

BACK TO THE LAND

Johannes Vogt Gallery hosts the fifth annual Barn Show opening July 6, bringing fresh faces, including St. Louis native and recent Yale MFA graduate Dominic Chambers, to East Hampton for one of the summer's most talked about shows.

“The relationship between reality and imagination is crucial in my current studio practice. I love to read, and find that reading is the best way to enhance the imagination. I am interested in creating a pictorial environment for black men and women, and other people of color, that embraces the imagination and accepts the potential for ‘magical’ occurrences in our lives.” —Dominic Chambers
